

INVITATION

THE ROLE OF WHATSAPP MESSAGES WITHIN THE CIRCULATORY WORLD OF RIGHT-WING GROUPS IN INDIA

A lecture by

Dr Fathima Nizaruddin

Documentary Filmmaker and Assistant Professor at AJK Mass Communication Research Centre,
Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi

In contemporary India, WhatsApp messenger has emerged as an important element in the circulatory world of narratives. How can we map the role of this new platform within the larger history of Hindutva circulations? What role do embodied interactions play within such contexts? The lecture will engage with these questions.

All interested are welcome to attend!

When: Tuesday, December 10th, 12-2pm
Where: Room 217, 2nd floor, IAAW (Invalidenstraße 118)
Contact: Prof. Dr. Nadja-Christina Schneider, Querschnittsbereich Gender and Media Studies for the South Asian Region
Website: <https://www.iaaw.hu-berlin.de/de/querschnitt/medialitaet>