

The Amaranthus Literary Translation Award 2018

for best literary translations from Uzbek into English, French, German, Russian and Turkish

- Have you translated Uzbek short stories or self-contained novel excerpts written by 20th-21st centuries authors?
- Are your translations hitherto unpublished, not yet accepted for publication (including web or self publication) or broadcast?

Then apply for the Amaranthus Literary Translation Award:
Competition is open from 1 June to 15 July, 2018.

There are 2 categories: under 30 and above this age. In each category a long list, a short list and a winner will be defined. Winners will be announced in early September and receive certificates at the Amaranthus Literary Translation Award party.

Prize: Certificates will be presented to every winner and winning translations will be published in foreign literary magazines.

Please note:

- Entries must be submitted anonymously. Each entry must have a separate entry form. Each entry must consist of a) one copy of the source text; b) one copy of the translated text; c) the correctly completed entry form.
- The source text must carry the name of its author and the title, and must be page numbered. There must be nothing on it which might identify the translator.
- Your translation must be double-spaced and on A4 sheets. It must not exceed 10 pages. The translation must be page-numbered and carry a title, and there must be nothing on it which might identify the translator.
- Translations from Uzbek into one of the target languages (English, French, German, Russian and Turkish) are eligible.
- A maximum of two entries may be submitted per entrant.
- There are no limitations on entrants with respect to age, nationality, place of residence, or professional status. No organiser, judge, reader or their relatives may enter.
- The decision of the Judges is final.

The panel of Judges includes Mahir Ünlü & Aziz Merhan (Turkish), Mark Reese & Shelley Fairweather-Vega (English), Filip Noubel & Stéphane Dudoignon (French), Герман Власов & Вадим Муратапов (Russian), Ingeborg Baldauf (German).

Amaranthus Literary Agency, Ltd
15 Kattabogh Street
Shaykhantakhur
Tashkent, Uzbekistan
+998911646635
amaranthus\_la@mail.ru