

Mongolei-Colloquium

Prof. Dr. J.Bat-Ireedui

(National University of Mongolia - Ulaanbaatar)

„Overview of Mongolian Linguistics and Global Mongolian Studies“

Mongolian linguistics is one of the basic sciences of Mongolian studies and the complex origin of the Mongolian language, culture, history and society with many centuries of historic tradition. Today we will be presenting to you about the history of the Mongolian language development and its phases, the scripts and letters used by the Mongols and its overview, the contemporary alphabet, language policy, Mongolian phonetics, vocabulary, syntactic, semasiology, composition, dialects, text studies, Mongolian social linguistics, theory of linguistics, biographies of linguists, research and other published materials related to Mongolian linguistics and its authors as well as current developments.

In addition, we will inform you of schools and institutions in the Asia Pacific, Eastern and Western Europe, U.S.A, and elsewhere that have Mongolian studies centers, researchers and Mongolists. We look into their previous and current activities, research work, how today's research approach is changing, what the research result is, and what opportunities there are to work together in the future.

Mittwoch, 08. Juli 2015

18:00 Uhr c. t.

Zentralasien-Seminar

Achtung: neuer Raum! 3. Etage, Raum 315

Invalidenstr. 118 10115 Berlin

(U6 Naturkundemuseum, S-Bhf Nordbahnhof)

Gäste sind herzlich willkommen!