Dr. Vasanthi Mariadass is the head of the Aesthetics and Critical Theory Program at Srishti College for Art, Design and Technology, Bangalore. She was a fellow at the Whitney Independent Study Program. Currently she is working on Harun Farocki, a Berlin based Artist and Filmmaker. Her interest is in Critical Theory and experimental visual essay films and her specialization was on the works of Jean-Luc Godard. Similarly Farocki’s documentaries are visual essays among other things and he is significantly inspired by Godard and therefore they are of critical interest to her work.