Presents

Yoruba Language and Culture Proficiency Programme

INTRODUCTION:

The unique and specific features of each language is determined by the historical and cultural background of the speakers. To learn and apply such historical and cultural uniqueness of each language in day to day activities is to learn the language the language itself. The survival of a group of people rests largely on the survival of their language. In view of this, the IADS, University of Lagos has designed the Yoruba Language and Culture Proficiency Programme. The programme is designed to offer Yoruba language-deficient native speakers and other interested speakers who are non-native speakers the relevant skills, knowledge and proficiency in the Yoruba language and culture.

COURSE BENEFITS:

- Participants will gain the skills needed to speak the Yoruba language at the basic level.
- At the advanced level, enthusiasts will gain a broader knowledge of the cultural, historical and social norms of the Yoruba people as embedded in the language;
- Acquire skills necessary to prepare them for professional translation;
- Acquire soft skills necessary for professional activities such as communication skills, intercultural competence, text editing and technical writing;
