

Konferenzen des Zentralasien-Seminars

Transcultural Interface and Local Implementations of Asian and Western Medical Systems: Transfer, Integration and Transformation between Asia and Europe

(supported by Fritz Thyssen Stiftung)

February 11-12, 2005

(PDF-file download)

Central Asian Seminar, Institute for Asian and African Studies,
Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin
Convenor: Prof. Dr. Ingeborg Baldauf
Organizer: Dr. Mona Schrempf (mona.schrempf@staff.hu-berlin.de)
Facilitator / Contact for Registration: Dr. Annette Krämer
(medaswest@asa.hu-berlin.de)
Venue: Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, Senatssaal, Unter den Linden
6, 10099 Berlin

1st Day: Friday Feb. 11, 2005; Senatssaal, Unter den Linden 6

9.00 Opening Address: Dr. Mona Schrempf, Central Asian Seminar,
Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

Opening Session: A Kaleidoscope of Approaches

Chair: Prof. Dr. Ingeborg Baldauf, Central Asian Seminar, Humboldt-
Universität zu Berlin

9.30 Globalisation of Asian Medicine: Acupuncture and Ayurveda in Germany

– Prof. Dr. Gunnar Stollberg, Institute for World Societies, Bielefeld
University

10.00 Experiences with a Symposium "Introduction of the Western Research Methodology" for Tibetan Doctors and Students at the Dharamsala Mentsikhang, India

– Prof. Dr. med. Klaus Jork, former Director of the Institut für Allgemeinmedizin, Klinikum der Johann Wolfgang Goethe Universität

10.30 Indian Medicines, Science and the Market: Soliciting Research and the Denial of Epistemological Difference

– Dr. Maarten Bode, Medical Anthropology Unit (MAU), Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Amsterdam; Research School for Resource Studies for Development (CERES), University of Utrecht

11.00 Wrapping Medicines and Packaging Health: Andamanese Construct of Transactable Body Images

– Prof. Dr. Vishvajit Pandya, Dhirubhai Ambani Institute of Information and Communication Technology, Ahmedabad, India

11.30 Coffee break

Session 2: Clients' Perspectives and Public Health

Chair: Prof. Dr. Ute Luig, Institute for Ethnology, Freie Universität Berlin

12.00 Mental Health Disorders among Muslim Migrants in Germany

– Prof. Dr. Peter Heine, Seminar for History and Societies of South Asia, Institute for Asian and African Studies, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

12.30 Explanatory Models of Addiction and Psychiatric Disorders among Turkish and German Youth and Ethnic German Adolescents from the former Soviet Union

– Prof. Dr. med. Andreas Heinz (Director), Simone Penka (MA), Hannah Plake; Research Group Transcultural Psychiatry, Clinic for Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, Charité University Medical Center

13.00 Seeking Health in Post-Soviet Central Asia – Clients' Perspectives

– Dr. Annette Krämer, Central Asian Seminar, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

13.30 Lunch break

Session 3: Public Health and Evaluation

Chair: Dr. Waltraud Ernst, Department of History, University of Southampton, UK

14.45 Public Health Programs in Thailand – Chances and Pitfalls
– Prof. Dr. med. Frank P. Schelp, former Head of the Institute for International Health, Joint Center for Humanities and Health Sciences, Campus Benjamin Franklin, Charité University Medical Centre

15.15 Traditional Tibetan Medicine and Clinical Trials: The Place of Zhi Byed 11 in a RCT for the Prevention of Postpartum Hemorrhage
– Dr. Mingkyi Tshomo, Tibetan Medical College, Lhasa, Tibet

15.45 How to Evaluate an Integrated Health Model: the Case of Acupuncture in the German Health Insurance Scheme of the TK (Techniker Krankenkasse)
– Dr. med. Claudia Becker-Witt and Dr. med. Benno Brinkhaus, Institute of Social Medicine, Epidemiology and Health Economics, Charité University Medical Center

16.15 Move to Central Asian Seminar, Institute for Asian and African Studies, Humboldt University, Invalidenstr. 118 (U-Zinnowitzerstrasse; access: Schlegelstr. 26), floor 5, room 507

17.00 Open Discussion Round for Presenters and Invited Guests

2nd Day: Saturday Feb. 12, 2005

Session 4: Integrative Approaches Versus Epistemological Differences?

– Chair: Dr. med. Rainer Stange, Head Doctor of the Abteilung für Naturheilkunde, Immanuel-Krankenhaus, Charité University Medical Center

9.00 Between Faith and Reason: Homeopathy and the Cultural Politics of Alternative Medicine in Colonial Bengal
– Madhumita Mazumdar, History Department, University of Calcutta, India

9.30 Tibetan Medicine and Biomedicine Combined: Epistemological Conflicts, Practical Solutions
– Prof. Dr. Geoffrey Samuel, University of Cardiff, School of Social Sciences, UK

10.00 Western Approaches to and Concepts of Tibetan Medicine: a Comparison with Original Tibetan Medical Texts

– Dr. Olaf Czaja, Institute for Indology and Central Asian Studies,
Universität Leipzig

10.30 Coffee break

Session 5: Professional Training in Asian Medicine

– Chair: PD Dr. med. Dr. phil. Thomas Heise, Head Doctor, Klinik für
Psychiatrie und Psychotherapie, Heinrich-Braun-Krankenhaus, Zwickau;
TCM Behandlungszentrum Chemnitz

11.00 Learning TCM in Germany

– Matthias Bauer (MA candidate), Ostasiatisches Seminar - Sinologie,
Freie Universität Berlin

11.30 Chinese Medicine in German Midwife Practices

– Gudrun Hess (PhD candidate), Ostasiatisches Seminar - Sinologie,
Freie Universität Berlin

12.00 Family Doctors: Generational Changes of Medical Training and Practice in China

– Chung Wei Jie/ Dr. Helga Werle-Burger, Berlin

12.30 Lunch Break

Session 6: Health Professionals of and between different Medical Systems

– Chair: Dr. Ildikó Bellér-Hann, Orientwissenschaftliches Zentrum,
Martin-Luther-Universität, Halle

13.45 Healers and Doctors in Indonesia (Java)

– Prof. Dr. Vincent Houben, Seminar of Southeast Asian Studies,
Director of the Institute for Asian- and African Studies, Humboldt-
Universität zu Berlin

14.15 Filling the Gap in Public Health: Tibetan Lineage Doctors in Nomadic Areas of the TAR

– Dr. Mona Schrempf, Central Asian Seminar, Humboldt-Universität zu
Berlin

14.45 Mongolian Doctors and Tibetan Medicine in Poland

– Emilia Sulek (MA, PhD candidate): Central Asian Seminar, Humboldt-
Universität zu Berlin

15.15 coffee break

Session 7: Case Studies - Integrative Practice

– Chair: PD Dr. Mareile Flitsch, Leiterin des VW-Projekts Geschichte und Ethnologie der Alltagstechniken Chinas, Technische Universität Berlin

15.45 Indications and Practical Applications of Ayurveda in Orthopaedic Practice

– Dr. med. H. Gupta, Baden-Baden, Orthopaedist, Baden-Baden

16.15 Complementary Practice of Biomedical and Traditional Tibetan Methods in Tibetan Hospitals of Amdo

– Katharina Sabernig (Cand. med.), Institut für Geschichte der Medizin, Universität Wien

16.45 Medical Knowledge and Practice in a German-Chinese Hospital in China

– Dr. med. Franz Koettnitz, Research Group German Medicine in China, Deutsches Krankenhaus Chongqing

17.15 Administering Integrative and Chinese Medicine in Berlin

– Dr. med. Achim Kürten (Head Doctor) and Jürgen Voigt, St. Hedwigs Hospital Berlin – Centre for TCM and Integrative Medicine

17.45 Outlook - Discussion: Interdisciplinary Research Possibilities and Perspectives

Seite zuletzt geändert: 24. Januar 2005
