

Kyrgyzstan today Youth and Conflict / Problems in health service sector

Two lectures by:
Bolotkan Sydykanov & Bakytbek Tokubek uulu
(short-time fellows at the Philipps-University of Marburg -
Centre for Conflict-Studies)

Topic 1: *Health services for women, migrants and youth in Kyrgyzstan

Bolotkan Sydykanov

Due to lack of information, education and financial resources, young women in the rural areas of Kyrgyzstan do not properly use health services. Due to the poor quality of health services, the maternal and newborn mortality rate is high. Inadequate health services also affect migrants, refugees and those living in remote rural areas. In addition the increasing number of HIV/AIDS infected persons is becoming a major problem.

Topic 2: *Youth and Conflict in Kyrgyzstan

Bakytbek Tokubek uulu

Marginalized youth played a key role during the revolution and ethnic clashes in 2010. This presentation will discuss the role marginalized youth played during and after the April 2010 events, and will focus on the ensuing peace building process. Since then many international organizations have been implementing projects focusing on conflict prevention through youth participation.

Bolotkan Sydykanov - Team Leader for Health Programs in Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH. He holds a BA in Finance from the Kyrgyz-Turkish Manas University and holds an MBA from the Management Academy in Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan.

Bakytbek Tokubek uulu received his BA in Cultural Anthropology from the American University of Central Asia, Kyrgyzstan and his MA in International Peace Studies from the United Nations University for Peace, Costa Rica and from the Ateneo de Manila University in the Philippines. He teaches cultural anthropology at the Nazarbayev University (NU) School of the Humanities.
