

Lecture

“One Belt, one Road” A View from Uzbekistan

by

Dr. Anvar Nizamov

(Samarkand State Institute of Foreign Languages)

The initiative "One Belt, One Road" was launched by the Chinese government in 2013. Since then numerous efforts have been implemented. The initiative links not only transport routes but also provides opportunities for mutual enrichment, prosperity and progress in partner countries. The presentation will focus on opportunities of Uzbekistan in participation in this process as well as main directions for further cooperation with the partner countries.

Anvar Nizamov holds a PhD in economics. After completing his BA degree in International Economic Relations and MSc degree in International Business and Master Degree studies in Business Administration Anvar Nizamov has accomplished a PhD research in economics and now holds a Senior Teaching position at the Chair of Social Sciences at the Samarkand State Institute of Foreign Languages. His research experience includes issues related with economics of education, unemployment & international tourism in the Samarkand region.

Ort: Invalidenstraße 118, Raum – Bitte auf Aushang achten!

Zeit: Mittwoch, 21. Juni, 18 Uhr

The lecture is designed for students and the interested public. Guests welcome.