

Vortrag

Uzbekistan's Economy in Local, Regional and Global Contexts: Developments of the Independence Period (1991-)

Lecture by Erasmus Mundus Guest Scholar

Anvar Nizamov

Samarkand State Institute of Foreign Languages

After a M.Sc. in International Business (1999) and Masters studies in Business Administration (2004), Anvar Nizamov has accomplished his PhD studies in economics in 2012 and currently holds a senior teaching position at the Chair of Social Sciences.

His research experience includes issues of unemployment and education in the Samarkand region, where he conducted sociological surveys (2010-2012) after having worked in management and assistant positions in various small and medium size businesses mainly in the Samarkand area of Uzbekistan.

Anvar Nizamov is available for consultations and matters of Humboldt-InYaz-cooperation until 4th of November. Contact: Sekretariat Zentralasien.

Venue: Invalidenstraße 118, R 507

Time: Wednesday, 2 November, 6 p.m.

The lecture is designed for students and the interested public. Guests welcome.